School Notes

The Public Schools were closed on Thursday and the Friday following. The teaching force worked on last Saturday to make up the time. The grades held school for the day while High School teachers put in the full day in putting the library in working order. Those who do not know how impossible for the pupils and the teachers to depend upon a poorly organized library and library index, these persons cannot fully appreciate how hard the teachers have worked on the library and how much they wish the books to be kept in order. Due to the fact that some irregularities have been practiced in the library management, there are more than fifty of the High School library books missing. We have been attempting to get in a few of these books and we will appreciate the return of all books belonging to any of the school libraries.

The basket ball season is now upon us. On Friday night, Dec. 2nd, the Festus team or teams will come to Ste. Genevieve. We are, on that evening, going to give the public a chance to see some real basketball. Flat River high school has written for a game with the girls' basketball team here in the near future. We hope to accept this challenge as well as the one to the boys' team from Esther. In order to inform the public as to whom they are supporting, we are publishing weekly the names of those persons eligible to play on the teams. Those whose names appear have passed the requirements set by the school and are worthy of all support of all the town and of all the school. The requirements are as follows: 1. Each pupil must pass in at least three high school subjects with a grade, (for the two weeks previous to the game) of M. 2. Each pupil must make a passing grade in deportment, which includes self control, attention, order and application. 3. Each pupil must make a grade of M in training, which includes good playing, regular practice, attention to personal health and general attitude on the field of practice.

List of those eligible in the girls' team: Rosina Koetting, Ruth Reich, Marion Ziegler, Adlee Baumgartner, Etha Hoog, Gertrude Koetting, Anna Petersen, Norma Bono, Mae Ellis, Wilma Oberle, Armella Petersen, Florence Siebert, Myrtle Vorst.

List of those eligible in the boys' team: Raymond Estes, Delbert Childers, Max Okenfuss, Peter Hinni, Austin Bauman, Oswald Oberle.

Father Accidentally Kills His Son

James A. Whitaker, 6 years old, was accidentally stabbed to death last Sunday by his father, Alvin Whitaker, who lives with his family on Judge Vince Valleroy's farm 3 1/2 miles northwest of Weingarten, and is employed as a tie hucker. Mr. Whitaker, we were told, was skinning a rabbit and the boys were watching him. A dog was jumping at the rabbit and in slapping at the dog with the hand in which he held the knife he accidentally stabbed the boy in the left breast, killing him instantly. Coroner Basler held an inquest over the body.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mary Louise Beauchamp, who was called to her heavenly home one year ago, November 25, 1920.

One year has passed since you have left us. I saw you suffer, I heard your sighs. With aching heart and with weeping eyes, I saw you sinking, hour by hour. Yet could not stay death's awful hour. But now you calmly sleep at rest. All pains, all aches, all suffering are passed. Forget her, no we never shall. Friends may think that the wound is healed. But they little know the grief which on hearts is concealed. Though from us you had to part, Your memory still dwells within our hearts.

Sadly missed by children and grandchildren.
